THE BEHAVIOR OF DELEGATES CALLED "DISGEACEFUL"—RESOLUTIONS ALTERNATING WITH EPITHETS.

The Central Labor Union met yesterday afternoon at Clarendon Hall. Matthew Maguire, of the Advance Labor Club, in the chair. Delegates from the Brass Workers' Union were admitted, and the announcement was made that 'Longshoremen's Union No. 3 had decided to withdraw its resignation, and would send delegates next Sunday.

Edward King, secretary of the mass-meeting to be held at Cooper Institute on Tuesday evening, reported a list of speakers for the occasion, and a discussion followed as to its adoption. Other names were surgested, and then somebody said "George Blair." Immediately the meeting resolved itself into a beargarden. A dozen men tried to get the floor annd a storm of hisses, and delegates shouted at one another, gesticulating wildly, while the chairman pounded vigorously with his gavel. When something approaching order was restored Hugh Greenan obtained the floor and remonstrated with the delegates upon their behavior. "Your action," he said, "disgraces the barsh judaments that cutsiders form of us." Eventually the Committee of Arrangements were instructed to select eight names, and announced Hugh Greenan, J. J. Madigan, Assemblyman Healy (of Rochester, T. B. Maguire, John O'Donnell, George Black, J. W. Franklin and P. J. Maguire.

Wilham McCabe reported that he had called on Excise Commissioner Mitchell with reference to the peremptory closing of the bar at 1 o'clock, at the Workingmen's Festival at the Madison Square Garden, two weeks ago, and Mr. Mitchell had said that the blane rested entirely with the police, and that he considered it an outrage. Mr. McCabe moved for the appointment of a committee to attend the police entertainment to be held on April 3 and 5, to see that the law was enforced.

TEMPERANCE MEETINGS YESTERDAY.

The Doutney Gospel temperance meeting was held as usual yesterday afternoon in the wigwam, at Broadway and Thirty-fourth-st. The exercises consisted of short addresses by Mr. Doutney and Dr. Vall, and an address by the Rev. Mr. Whiffield. Music was furnished by the Olympian Colored Giee Club, the Weber quintet and by Mr. Cornish's band. A Mr. Chambers, whom Mr. Doutney introduced as "the greatest bone performer in this or any other country." played a bone solo that received great applause. A number of persons signed the temperance pledge.

The usual programme of Gospel temperance songs and addresses was omitted at the meeting of the Manhattan Temperance Association in the afternoon, in Masonic Temple, at Twenty-third-st, and Sixth-ave., and special services commensurative of Easter were substituted. The platform was ornamented with bouquets and blooming plants. The Rev. S. J. Williams and the Rev. Mr. Samson spoke on the lessons to be learned from the Resurrection of Christ.

In Brooklyn the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and the Temperance League of the South Second Street M. E. Church held a union service at the Masonic Temple. All available space in the half was occupied. The audience was addressed by the Rev. W. H. Booth, who told some of his experiences as a lemperance lecturer in the West, where the people are warmer in the cause than here. He had found that the politicians of that region did not seem to know what to do with the temperance question. He closed by making an earnest appeal for prohibition.

PLANNING A RECEPTION TO MR. PAPNELL.

PLANNING A RECEPTION TO MR. PARNELL.

The delegates from Irish societies convened to arrange for the reception of Charles Stewart Parnell met in Germann Hall yesterday afternoon, Dr. W. B. Wallace presiding. The following societies were present in addition to those represented at the last meeting: "Longshoremen No. 3. St. Patrick's Alliance, Kings County; County Derry Association, Irish Confederation of America, Cora Men's Association, St. Bridget's Temperance Association, Kings County Association, Limerick Men's Association and Young Men of Ireland Club.

The announcement that the Cork Men's Association nominated O'Donovau Rossa as their delegate was received with applause. A letter was read from J. J. Hynes, secretary of the Irish National Land League of America, dated at Brifalo, stating that the Reception Committee would be informed as soon as word was received from Mr. Parnell. It was reported that the Academy of Music was the only hall available at the date of the reception. In reference to the difficulty in reconciling the Ancient Order of Ribernians to his nomination as chairmae, Dr. Wallace announced his readiness to withdraw in these terms: "That we may teach the English nation by our reception of Parnell what confidence the Irish people, at home and abroad, place in their leader, let our preparations be made free from sectional differences."

The committee to confer with the Ancient Order of Histernians was therefore reappointed with instructions to report next Sunday.

SERIOUS ENDING TO A MERRY-MAKING.

There was a ball in Walhalla Hall in Orchard-st. on Saturday night, given by the Adelphi Social Club, and dancing was kept up until daylight yesterday morning. Boswald's Band furnished the music. Members of a rival club, who had become intoxicated, created a disturbance in the bail-room as the dancers were going away. A fight, begun inside the bailding, was renewed on the sidewalk andta young ruffian of the Fourit Ward was knocked down and beaten by a member of the Adelphi Club. The ruffian drew a pistol as soon as he was able to get on his feet. He fired two shots at random and then seized Philip Boswald, a flute-player, and brother of the band master.

Boswald had left the hall with other members of the band and was watching the fight. One of the bullets had grazed his coat. The ruffian aimed a third shot at the musician's head and sent a bullet through the upper lobe of his left car. Other members of the band rushed toward the ruffian, who ran rapidly up Orchard-st., firing two more shots. He escaped by running through Broome-st. to Eldridge-st. Boswald was not badly burt and he refused to go to a hospital, The police could not ascertain the name of the assailant. It was sand that one of the ruffian's companions had been shot in the leg, but his name was not known. Boswald lives at No. 136 Allen-st. SERIOUS ENDING TO A MERRY-MAKING.

FUNERAL OF LEWIS FATMAN.

FUNERAL OF LEWIS FATMAN.

The funeral of Lewis Fatman, the cotton broker, who died last Thursday, was held yesterday morning at the house of his brother, Aaron Fatman, No. 141 West Forty-second-st. There was a large attendance of friends and relatives. Rabbi Gottheil, of the Temple Emmanu-El, conducted the services and gave a brief sketch of Mr. Fatman's life. He came to the United States when a boy, and when the name of Jew was regarded as a stigma of reproach. He lived to see the Jew respected in the land, to contribute his own great indicance to the result, and to leave a name that will be remembered with kindness to the Jews of New-York and the country. Mr. Fatman engaged prominently in Hebrew charities. Among those present were fivman Blum, Isaac Wallach, Samuel M. Schafer, Jesse Schigman, De Witt J. Seligman, W. H. Guyon, Gustav Schwab, M. B. THE RETURN OF ACCUSED OFFICERS.

The White Star Line steamship Republic, from Liverpool, reached her pier, in North River, at 10 a.m. yesterday. In the afternoon Captain Irving and Chief Officer Barrett left the vessel and went to their hotel. The two Deputy Sheriffs who were said to have gone to Quarantine to arrest them on the complaint of Thomas Dowes, suspected of complicity in the Phenix Park murders, were not seen there, and at 6 p. m. they had not appeared on the Republic, so far as Second Officer Bawman knew. He said that it had been reported that the two Sheriffs had been on the pier, yet he had no definite information about it.

'Captain Irving and the chief officer," the second officer said, "are not avoiding arrest; they did not do so when the Republic was here before. When she left the pier both officers were on board of her and made no effort to conceal themselves. This man Dowes had no cause of complaint. He was not put into chains; he was only placed in the hospital and had better care than the steerage pasengers. O'Donovan Rossa has got hold of him and is trying to make the most of him. The arrest cannot be made to-day, anyway, as it is Sunday."

Thomas Dowes was one of three stowaways on the Glamorgan from Liverpool, which was wrecked and whose crew were rescued by the Republic and brought to this city on February 25. Dowes was suspected by Captain Irving of being connected with the Phenix Park murders and was held until the captain had communicated with the British Consul-General in this city. Dowes subsequently brought suit against Captain Irving and Chief Officer Barrett for false upprisonment and cruelty, claiming heavy danages. An attempt was made to arrest the officers before the Republic left the city, but it failed.

ICEBERGS AND GALES AT SEA.

The Swedish ship Edward arrived from Amsterdam yesterday having made a remarkable passage from port to port of twenty-four days, notwithstanding that she encountered ice on the Banks of Newfoundland. She had fine weather until March 9 when she encountered a southerly cale which became a cyclone and lasted for four days. On March 14, on the edge of the Banks, in latitude 45° 30' north, longitude 48° 30' west, she met large fields of ice, which extended as far as the eye could reach. After sailing nearly fifty miles in a southerly direction, passing several large and many small icebergs, the Edward reached open water on the following moroing. When 100 miles further to the southward, the vessel met a dense log and was obliced to "lay-to" all night.

The German ship J. Wiessenhorn arrived yesterday, sixty-one days from Antwerp. On February 5 she encountered a hurricane which lasted for fortyeight hours and did much damage to the ship, including the loss of several saits. A gale followed on February 9 in which several saits were blown away. On February 14 heavy gales, lightning and saits were lost. Another severe gale prevailed on March 6, when the mizzen-topsail was blown away.

CHANGES IN THE CITY CHARTER.

PLANS OF THE DEMOCRATIC FACTIONS. SINGLE HEADS FOR A NUMBER OF THE DEPART-MENTS.

When Mayor Edson's proposed amendments to the city charter were introduced in the Legislature the politicians saw at once that these were not what they wanted. In fact they were satisfied to left the existing charter remain in force without change. The city government was in their hands, and Mayor Edson cound be trusted to give them such offices as might tail under his control; hence, there was nothing to be desired on their part. It was generally understood, therefore, that no bills maxing changes in the dry government sound be passed.

Governor Cleveland, however, is said to have intimated recently to one or two members of the Legislature from this city that something ongut to be done to redeem the promises of municipal reform made in the last canvass. This has had the effect of stirring up the leaders, and during the last week quiter efforts have been made to amend the Mayor's amendments in such a way as will reader them satisfactory to the politicians, and, while making a show of the form, leave the departments still in control of the men who are at the head of the Democratic factions in the city. In this way the leaders have agreed that the Mayor's bild shall be so altered as to retain for the Board of Aldermen the power it now has of confirming or rejecting the Mayor's nontreadens. There is to be no change in the Departments of Charities and Correction, Taxes and Assessments, and Police. It was thought best by these leaders to leave the bureau of Elections in the cantrol of the Tolice Department. If any change is made in that respect them the Police Department will be reduced to one lead, which, however, is not regarded as probable.

Where a department now has only one bead he is to be left in control, as under the existing law, but where a change is made in the number of heads the terms of the present officials are to terminate on May I. This will legislate out of office the rark commissioners and those of the Fre, Dock, Health and Democratic leaders. The abspacturent is not now under the country of eith while making a show of recomb proteing to such beaded departments, the politicians will greatly add to their existing parronage.

For Instance, the Fire Department is now in control of three Commissioners, one of woon, Mr. Van Cott, is a Kepublican, and another, H. D. Purroy is an "Anti-Kelly Tammany Hail Democrat." The third, John J. Gorman, is a full-fle skel Tammany Democrat. Said by Gorman, is a full-fle skel Tammany Democrat. Said by Hern will expire on May I. Therefore, if this Department is reduced to a single head, the Requadican and the nondescript Democratic Commissioner will be got rid of, while Mr. Gorman is said to be sure of reappointment. This will give Tammany full control of the Department, but will be no loss to the County Democracy or Irving Hail: consequently there is no trouble about agreement on that amendment. The advantage to Fammany Hail is to be offset by giving the Dock Hoard to the County Democracy, It is not now in a continuoi of either organization. Commissioner Vanderjoe, whose term will expire on May I, le a kind of nondescript Democracy, while tambers is a Republical. John R. There is some objection to this, but Mr. Kelly claims that tammany is cuttied to farmish Commissioners for all vacancies until total faction has as mine paironage as the County Democracy. FEMALE EDUCATION IN ENGLAND.

From The London Times, March 15.

Yesterday there was held, in one of the most gorgoous of the renovated Halls of Guilds that adorn the City of London, the annual meeting of an institution which is perinapa the principal oxidence of the wish of the City Companies to Justify their existence. This is the "City and Guilds of London Institute for the Promotion of Technical Education."

One encouraging feature in the report is to be found in the particulars given of the work done by women. In the South London Technical School the numbers of women students have during the past year not failen far short of the men, and in some branches, such as wood-engraving, they have been largely in excess. The figures are not, indeed, very considerable as yet, but they are growing; and they have to be taken in connection with those of many other departments of instruction if we wish to form a true idea of the activity which is a lately began to characterize the movement for female education in this kingdom. In all classes of society, and in all stages of attainment, the insi few years have seen an immense advance in that direction. In the Universities as in the Board schools, our sisters have begun to assert, and to justify, their claim to as good an education as is given to their brothers. Cambridge has already thrown open its degree examinations to women; and the smallness of the nagority by which a like proposal was lately defeated in the Hebdomadal Council shows that in Oxford the same measure is but a question of time. What an Improvement has lately taken place in giris schools is a fact so well known that it need not be dwelt on. On Friday next, at the Albert Hall the Princess of Wales is to deliver the prizes to the pupils of the London schools belonging to the Giris Public Day School Company, and those who have not watched the extraordinary success which has attended the work of thece lately established schools will then have an opportunity of seeing what a demand has grown up for all education that shall give girls as rea square, Bloomsbury, entirely inhaded by endowments of grants, woll observes the considerable success which has attended its lators. Its classes, drawn from all ranks of society, are trained on the best methods; and they work steadily and well, with the result of producing not only now and then such artists as Mrs. Allingham, but a steady supply of good designers, skilled wood-carvers, and the elever workers for whose work in our busy Eng-land there is always a full demand. One of the best re-sults of an organization like that of the City and Guilds histitute will be to develop all over the country many more such centres of good training and educated skill.
